

Un Riu d'Art

International Art Project

With the support of the Youth General Secretary of the Generalitat of Catalonia.

Ribera-roja d'Ebre (Tarragona, Catalonia, a rural village bathed by the River Ebro and wrapped in a beautiful natural environment, is being converted into an experimental 'factory' for art, culture, design, communication, and events.

Project justification

This project is specifically aimed to improve and develop certain strategic areas (both public and private) within the municipality.

The City Council's 'Department of Youth' announces this project with the aim to support and promote international networks and to develop projects with local and international artists.

Details

TIMING

- The activity will be held over 13 days, from the 18th to the 30th June 2018.

Applicants should send the following details via email to info@riudart.cat by the 15th of April 2018.

CALL

- This is an open call to all artists, of all disciplines and art forms, of any nationality, aged between 25 and 40 years.

- ID, passport or similar document scanned
- Curriculum Vitae
- One or more artistic proposals
- Between 3 and 5 images of past artwork from portfolio or exhibition
- A recent photo of yourself

ENDOWMENT

- The organisation will provide artists with: medical insurance, accommodation, meals, locations for the installation of artworks as well as a material budget to develop their works, (encompassing all media, disciplines and art forms).

SELECTION

- The organisation will make its decision by the 21st April 2018. You will be notified of the results by email.

DOCUMENTATION

- Any documentation submitted in support of an application will not be returned to applicants under any circumstances. Documents can be in Catalan, Spanish or English.
- The organisation can undertake any necessary technical requirements in the chosen location (eg. foundations, power connection, facilitation and transport of materials such as wood, stones, etc.).
- The judging panel will assess proposals based on: not exceeding the material budget, the possible use of recycled materials, the ability to integrate the work within the environment and its relationship to the historical, social and cultural context of Riba-roja d'Ebre and Catalonia.

COMMITMENTS

- The organisation will record and document the creative process of all artworks at various stages throughout the event.
- The artist may be required to conduct interviews or other liaising with the media.
- If the possibility of a printed publication arises, the City Council of Riba-roja d'Ebre reserves the right to use images and footage from the artworks created. The publication will credit each artists and the title of their work and any income generated will fund future cultural projects.

ART WORKS

- The works will be permanently installed within the village of Riba-roja d'Ebre. If your proposal includes performance or ephemeral installation, this should be documented either by video or photography in order to create a long lasting record of the event.
- Each proposal must identify a title, a description of the concept or significance of the work, an action plan and a detailed list of the necessary elements to create it (the organisation offers up to 150€ per artwork for materials and up to 250€ towards travel costs - travel receipts will be required for reimbursement).
- The document "Example Locations" shows examples of locations in and around Riba-roja d'Ebre where you can make and install artwork.
